

National Parents Council Primary

National Parents Council

Lusk National School Parents Association shall affiliate to the National Parents Council – Primary each year at the discretion of the committee.

National Parents Council Primary (NPC) is the nationwide organisation representing parents of children attending early and primary education.

NPC is recognised by the Government and the Education Act 1998 as the body representing you as parents.

The NPC aim is to improve and enrich the education of all children and support parents to get involved in their children's learning at home, in the community and at school.

To contact the NPC please email: info@npc.ie or telephone 01-8874034. The Information/Helpline can be contacted on 01-8874477 or by emailing: helpline@npc.ie

The NPC website is well worth checking out regularly as it contains important news and events. The NPC hold many seminars and events during the year and Lusk National School Parents Association will make parents aware of these events as they arise.